

David Canet

*Founder and President
Infuse Commercial Capital Corporation*

Since graduating Columbia Business School in 1993 David has been dedicated to assisting small and medium sized business owners, investors and lenders alike realize financial and operational objectives. Prior to founding Infuse David held positions in loan origination, credit and underwriting, and closing and servicing, including executive management positions at two leading finance companies - Heller Financial Inc. and BLX.

David has structured and funded more than two hundred debt transactions across more than 35 industries and property types nationwide and has managed a $2.8 billion commercial loan portfolio. These experiences afforded David the unique opportunity to access and analyze data on more than 2000 businesses in a portfolio developed over 15 years, culminating in David's unique insight as to the drivers of creditworthiness, long term business stability and the true nature of business value.

In early 2008 Mr. Canet founded Infuse Commercial Capital Corporation to bring unbiased expert financial advice to the business and lending community that he has served for over 15 years. David and his staff at Infuse arrange appropriately structured highly competitive financing for the business and investment community and provide insightful analysis to the lending community. David truly understands the nature of mid-sized and closely held businesses and provides analysis that makes clear the client's present financial and operating worth and advice that offers a road map to growth and profitability.

David holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Political Science from Tufts University and a Masters of Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from Columbia Business School. David is a member of the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA), and holds a CT property casualty license.

