

The [Insert Association Name] is also a member of the International Carwash Association's WaterSavers Alliance. The Alliance brings together regional associations via the promotion of the WaterSavers program, the industry's award-winning environmental promotion program. Through this program member car washes can promote their environmentally-friendly practices related to water usage. For more information, please visit www.icawatersavers.org.